2011 SAILING SEASON BEGINS

The 2011 sailing season is upon us and we hope this will be one of our best seasons ever. For the first time in several years, we'll kick off the season with a tune-up race on Saturday, June 25th, followed by an informal gathering to discuss tuning and rigging.

Then it's the official start of the season with the Fourth of July races on Saturday, July 2, followed by the kickoff party at the Moos cabin. We'll catch up and give a quick overview of the sailing clinics (July 3 and during the first week of August) and racing agenda. But mostly we'll just have some fun.

The other new races this year will be the Wooden Boat Classic on July 23 followed by the Pirate Race on July 24. Our hope is get some of the older wooden boats back in the mix -- with some of our experienced skippers serving as moral support and/or crew.

Check back regularly at the Ten Mile Lake Sailing Club Web site or e-mail Commodore Grant Moos at grant.moos@earthlink.net for more information.

All hands on deck

Sailors young and old are being encouraged to join their friends and neighbors for an introduction to sailing during the Fourth of July weekend. We'll teach you the basics to get you started. To learn more and sign up, go to our Ten Mile Lake Sailing Club website at www.tmlsailingclub.org

2010 race schedule

The official sailing season begins at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, June 25, with the Tune-up Race. In case of foul weather, the races will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. The following is the schedule for the sailboat races in 2011:

June 25*	Tune-up Race
July 2	Fourth of July
July 16	Memorial Cup
July 23*	Wooden Boat Classic
July 24*	Pirate Race
July 30	Moxness Cup
Aug. 6	End of Summer

Need help putting up your mast? Call the Commodore and we'll try to organize a crew to lend a hand.

Sailing Week begins July 30

Once again, an entire week of sailing activities will be held beginning the week of July 30 through Aug. 6. Your friends and neighbors will hold a series of on-water demonstrations and clinics about sailing, water safety, wind, and racing tactics. Last year, we had more than 20 new sailors participate in these on-water clinics.

The No. 1 goal of the Ten Mile Lake Sailing Club is to get more people on the water out sailing. Please see our website at www.tmlsailingclub.org for more information.

During the summer, the site is updated weekly.

Sailing Club Hall of Fame

At our season-ending gathering in 2010, six sailors were inducted into our inaugural Ten Mile Lake Sailing Club Hall of Fame. Dick Garbisch led the class, followed by Rollie Buck, Bob Buck, Jim Brandt and Jimmy Gamble. All were recognized for their roles in getting the club started in the 1930s.

And Dave Brandt, a long-time sailor, was also in the first class of Hall of Fame inductees. Dick Garbisch, who taught a series of sailing classes for young sailors in the 1960s and 1970s, is responsible for getting several of our current club members hooked on sailing.

Rollie Buck is the grandfather of past Commodore Tom Sigveland, and Jim Brandt is the father and grandfather of current members Tom (and Tom Jr.) Brandt.

Pirate Race

The first-ever Ten Mile Lake Pirate Race will be held Sunday, July 24.

Sailors will begin by sailing to the windward mark, where they will pick up a bottle containing a series of clues for how to complete the race. Knowledge of Ten Mile Lake geography and history will be a definite benefit.

A trophy will also be awarded for the "cutest pirate." Committee Boat Rear Admiral Dick Staunton is chairman of the selection committee.

More fresh air in the 2010 sailing season

The 2010 sailing season ended on a high note Aug. 7 when 10 boats showed up for the Moxness Cup – the most in about a decade.

The new (or sailors we haven't seen for awhile) boats included Harry Seward (with his wife, Judy, and Tara), Rebecca Lundberg and John Rainaldi (sailing the Putney boat) and Tom Garbisch sailing the old Garbisch wooden C, which performed well in the light air.

Ki and Byron Hoffman won both races to capture first overall, followed by Pete Roberts in second (with two thirds) and a tie for third: John and Rebecca (with a second and a fifth) and Bob Crabb and Robin (also with a second a fifth).

A complete lack of wind the following day on Sunday required us to cancel the End of the Summer race. But we were able to hold three of our four races this past season.

Pete Roberts and Bob Crabb tied for first in the Fourth of July Race, followed by Grant Moos and Byron Hoffman.

Ki Hoffman won the Memorial Cup with two firsts, Bob Crabb and Grant Moos tied for second with Mimi Garbisch Carlson in third.

Ki and Byron Hoffman won the Summer Series, followed by Bob Crabb in second and Grant Moos in third. (See race results for a complete overview of the sailing season.)

Come join the sailing fun at Ten Mile Lake

Everyone in the Ten Mile Lake community is encouraged to join the fun by becoming involved in the Ten Mile Lake Sailing Club.

The club has been sailing and having fun since 1938. And we're making a concerted effort this year to welcome a new generation of sailors to the club.

Please visit www.tmlsailingclub.org for more information about what we're all about. You'll find regular updates about upcoming events and sailing clinics.

And all are welcome to come to the 2011 sailing season kickoff party at the Moos cabin on Saturday, July 2, after the races that afternoon.

We'll outline what's in store for the upcoming season. Hope to see you then.
